

Clash of The Cultures II

The meaning of 'Clash of the Culture' is usually negative. It means to feel the unusual, the 'what is complicated for us'. The cultures are human-made, as well as the 'Clash of The Cultures'. Understanding this may be the positive side.

Organization & Management : Red Pearl Dance Theater.

Idea & Concept : Juyoun Kim-Johannsen

Support: Paradise Culture and Arts Foundation of Korea.

Place: Sardinien, USF

Date: 10th December (Sunday) 2006, 4:30pm–12:00pm

Program

I. Work Shop “Communication of Two Bodies” 4:30pm–6:30pm

Contents : Improvisation of two bodies without talking. How ones body can be oneself and feel/be aware of the others in the same moment.

(Intermission 30 minute)

II. Red Pearl Dance Theater “Border Line” 7:00pm–7:40pm

Contents : After globalization. We cannot avoid to see and meet other people and cultures. What is the border of the differences, the in-between which cannot be seen? This work, with people coming from different cultures, with people using different movement elements, having different skills and experiences in performing arts is about the expression of this border.

(Intermission 20 minute)

III. Juyoun’s “Survive with Your Dance Party” 8:00pm–12:00pm

Contents : The concept of the party is to mix different dance styles and music. Come along with one or more dance styles and dance to Tango-, Salsa-. Belly/Flamenco- New Age- and some other special music. Try to create free style dance, Modern, Jazz even Hip-Hop, whatever you like. Everything is welcome: Have fun!!!
