

Audition

I am looking for performing artists for my project:

Clash of the Cultures II -“Border Line”

I am interested in working with performing artists such as dancers educated in Ballet, Modern, Jazz–dance or actors. People experienced in folk dance (Asian, Belly–dance or Flamenco), social dances (Tango, Salsa) or in Pantomimes, Rhythmical Gymnastics, Martial Arts are also welcome. I would like to work with people coming from different cultures, with different movement elements, skills, experiences in performing arts. There is no age limit. Both men and women are welcome. I will use elements of dance and theater. The process will be a crossover– and integration–work. My aim is to express the border between the differences, which cannot be seen.

I want to encourage everybody who is interested in my project to come to the audition on

September 22, 10am, Studio 1, 4th floor or
September 23, 6pm, Studio 1, 4th floor,
Bergen Dance Center, USF.

If you would like express yourself don't hesitate to come!!!

About Myself

My name is Juyoun Kim-Johannsen, I come from South-Korea and I am the director of the Red Pearl Dance Theater. I lived and worked several years in Germany before I came to Bergen, one month ago. The project I am planning to do in Bergen is supported by the Korean Paradise Culture and Arts Foundation. The performance will take place in Sardinien, USF in early December 2006.
